ST JOHN'S COLLEGE CHILD SAFETY POLICY Child Friendly Edition

From Our Child Safe Commitment

St John's College is fully committed to child safety.
We want our students to be safe, happy and empowered.
We support and respect all students, as well as our staff and volunteers.

Purpose

Our goal is to create and maintain a child safe and child-friendly environment that supports our students to feel safe, happy and empowered.

Our College helps and looks after all students; old and young, students with different beliefs, needs and backgrounds.

Staff, volunteers, students and their families work together to keep all children safe from harm.

This policy (document) gives guidance on how to keep our students safe.

It helps our community understand their responsibility to child safety.

PROTECT

Child Safe Standards

The National Principles and the Victorian Child Safe Standards provide guidance on how to keep children safe.

St John's College has also developed their own expectations and values that guide us all at the College, such as our 'Shared Expectations'.

Child Safety at St John's College

No hat, no play, no fun today.

After Brainfood

Stay where the teacher in the green vest is and don't go where the teacher can't see you.

DONT Push People
USE safe hands

Reporting and Responding

We have zero tolerance of child abuse at St John's College.

All safety issues will be treated very seriously.

All adults know that it is important to listen when kids speak up.

They know they must follow up with the Child Safety Officers.

OUR CHILD SAFETY OFFICERS

Mr Ponsford

Mr Hedditch

Mr Raspa

Mrs Vlahos

Mr Sherwood

Ms Pimpini

If you need help, talk to or direct message Mr Ponsford, Mr Hedditch, Mr Raspa, Mrs Vlahos, Mr Sherwood or Ms Pimpini.

There is also a feedback box for students to use at reception.

Professional Learning for Staff

Staff, volunteers and visitors have training at the College to understand their responsibility to child safety.

The training helps them to know what to do to help students feel safe.

Risk Management

We all know that it is important to keep our College safe.

All staff look out for problems or things that might be unsafe.

If there are any problems, the school will fix them.

Children and young people must let an adult know if they see a risk.

St John's College takes a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse and is fully committed to ensuring that its strategies, policies, procedures, and practices meet all Child Safety Standards as specified in Ministerial Order No. 1359 (2022).
